Content Overview:

This session is all about YOU.

We are going to meet to share our favorite trade secrets. Please come with trainer tips and tricks to contribute. Bring details about your favorite icebreaker or training game. Share a copy of an article that we can all read and learn from. Bring the title of your favorite book that changed your training career and be prepared to tell us how it impacted you. Tell us about a cool website that you have found. Bring software to demonstrate. Share details about some technology that you use. What are the best training toys or training supplies you have found? Tell us about your success stories.

Who best to learn from – then other qualified trainers?

If you are willing to share an idea and send me the details by Monday, July 31, your session cost will be waived and I will also copy your handouts for the participants.

Let's plan for a fun night with a lot of interaction and great take-aways.
